

Where can physicians complete their special state CME requirements?

Virtual Lecture Hall[®]

www.VLH.com

All courses offer AMA PRA Category I Credit[™]

You can meet these state-mandated CME requirements:

- Opioid and Controlled Substance Prescribing
- Pain Management
- Medical Ethics/Professional Responsibility
- Risk Management/Patient Safety
- Medical Errors Prevention
- End-of-Life and Hospice/Palliative Care
- Domestic Violence: Recognizing and Reporting
- Child Abuse: Recognizing and Reporting
- HIV/AIDS
- Infectious Diseases
- Cultural Competence
- Infection Control
- Geriatric Care
- Behavioral Health
- Sexual Assault
- Public Health Issues

VLH.com offers:

- A highly interactive, self-paced educational experience
- Case-based courses with real-life clinical scenarios
- CME certificates listing specific state-mandated requirements
- Optional ABIM and ABP Part II MOC points for some courses
- Integrity and complete lack of advertising!

Owned and operated by The University of Arizona College of Medicine - Tucson

Alabama
Alaska
Arizona
Arkansas
California
Connecticut
Delaware
DC
Florida
Georgia
Iowa
Louisiana
Maine
Maryland
Massachusetts
Michigan
Mississippi
Nevada
New Jersey
New Mexico
New York
North Carolina
Oregon
Pennsylvania
Rhode Island
South Carolina
Tennessee
Texas
Vermont
Virginia
Wisconsin

GET STARTED - Register an account for access to all courses

VLH.com REGISTRATION CODE: 5054

(Fee for CME certificate: $25/credit. Optional fee for MOC points: $10/credit.)